PRESIDENT'S

Lake Champlain Access Television, otherwise known as LCATV, continues to grow and thrive under the excellent management of our Executive Director, Kevin Christopher, and his able staff, Buddy Meilleur and Rebecca Padula, as well as Field Producers Joshua Bradley, Patricia Braine and Matthew Wohl. There is constant improvement in programming on Channels 15 and 16 as well as increased variety and quality with fewer “down times”. Kevin has written a very comprehensive report about activities at our studios located at 354 Prim Road in Colchester. Please refer to his report...there is no need for duplication.

Public Access television is governed by the public. Board of Directors members Don Alderman, Sam Conant, Tim Hunt, Roger Moyer, Kary Towne and myself make up an interesting cast of characters as well as a very loyal and experienced group. We are all from Colchester or Milton. Although Georgia is included in our scheduled programming, the town has no representation at present.

We would welcome the three representatives from Georgia and appreciate their input. As a P.E.G. station, we require that Public Access viewers elect their representative by ballot; the Education representative is appointed by the school board; and the Government representative is appointed by the select board. We realize that there are not many television viewers in Georgia that receive Adelphia. However, those that do watch Channels 15 and 16 should be heard...

There is always an item on our meeting agenda- usually number two- available for Public Comment. We seldom (VERY seldom) have anyone there to comment on anything. Is anybody interested or are we beyond comment? Although the corners of our mouth may go up or down, depending upon praise or complaint, we promise not to bite.

We are here to serve you. Please stop by or telephone 862-5724. Meeting notices are on our prize-winning Community Bulletin Board.

May the lion and the lamb soon live in peace and God Bless America!

Respectfully submitted,

Mary Simperts, LCATV Board of Directors President

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S

Lake Champlain Access Television has entered the digital age. For years we have toiled away behind our sturdy, reliable S-VHS cameras and editors. And while they're not going anywhere for a while yet, Fiscal Year 2001/2002 saw the introduction of exciting new formats and equipment as we built a digital work center. We acquired three nonlinear editing systems (all Macintosh) and four digital camcorders (all Sony) and have produced several in-house projects in digital formats. While some producers have been reluctant to give up the familiarity of VHS, the younger set has flocked to it. During our video production classes with Colchester High School, there is invariably a wait to use one of the editing computers. They hardly even look at the linear systems these days. And their work on this new technology is not going unnoticed. At the New England Scholastic Press Association Video Broadcasting Awards, representatives from the CHS video production class took home top honors in editing and best of show for, fittingly, a segment produced at LCATV about our digital equipment.

They weren't the only award winners among our ranks. In 2001, the whole of New England found out what we've known for some time now: that LCATV has the best community bulletin board around. Production Coordinator and resident graphics generating artist Buddy Meilleur placed first in the bulletin board category of the Alliance for Community Media's Annual Northeast Regional Video Festival. All told, it was an eventful October for Buddy. In addition to his award, Buddy also became LCATV's second fulltime employee at the start of the fiscal year. It was a logical and much-needed progression for him and us.

The changes at LCATV extend to the cosmetic as well as the technological. A facility renovation continues, however slowly. I've spent many weekends (along with a few dedicated friends) inhaling paint fumes in the name of interior improvements. We now have ample videotape shelving...ending the days of piling box on top of box and the frustrating searches for the tape we needed. The old Channel 2 sign has a new resting place in our foyer. And most of the walls are as soothing a shade of blue as is probably safe if we want to continue to be productive. I hope in next year's report to write of the completion of these renovations. There goes my weekend.

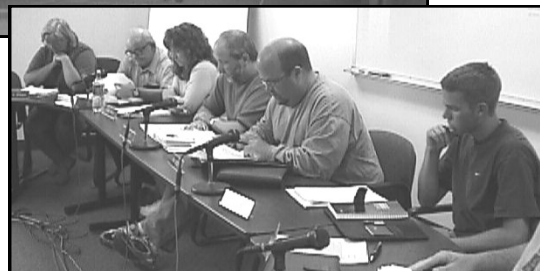

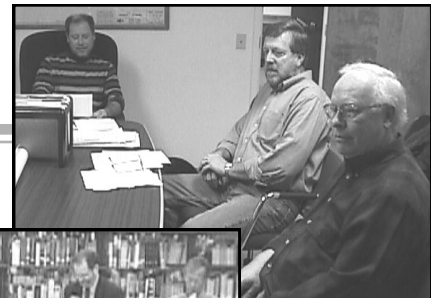

Lots of personnel changes. In addition to promoting Buddy to fulltime, we saw the departure of Playback Programmer Patricia Braine and the arrival of Rebecca Padula (a former field producer and current station manager at Mount Mansfield Community TV) to the position. We lost some field producers and gained some more. And we welcomed Tim Hunt to the LCATV Board of Directors as our Milton Public Access Representative, finally giving us a full slate of Milton Board members.

Many changes and many improvements during FY 2001/2002 at LCATV. There's much more that could be mentioned. Like weeks of work by Buddy and I on the handsome new Field Producer's Handbook. But instead of listing all of last year's accomplishments, perhaps we'll concentrate on achieving the things that I'll get to write about this time next year.

Respectfully submitted,

Kevin Christopher, LCATV Executive Director
October 2002
